REGISTER NOW for a Professional Development event, the CCCAOE Energy Matters Pre-Conference in Rancho Mirage. Len Hering, Center for Sustainable Energy, and Bill McNamara, California Conservation Corps will Keynote the event. Professional Development funds available via Prop 39.

Speakers Announced:

The ECU Sector Team is pleased to announce that we've lined up two world class Keynotes for the September 26 CCCAOE Energy Matters Pre-Conference in Rancho Mirage:

- RADM Len Hering, Sr. (USN ret.), Executive Director of the Center for Sustainable Energy, is a prominent military and civilian sustainability leader. His passion in sustainability is educating people on the dangers the future holds without taking responsible actions to secure the nation's energy independence and to preserve water, air quality and other resources.
- Bill McNamara, California Conservation Corps ("CCC"), was appointed by California Governor Jerry Brown as the Director of Energy Programs, and is responsible for the design and development of all integrated Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy workforce development programs for the CCC throughout California.

It's not too late to register and take advantage of professional development funds. Go to <https://cccao.org/events/2016-fall-conference/registration> and select Pre-conference - Efficiency Matters: Energy Sector (Prop 39) to register. Prop 39 will cover the cost of the one day ($200) and the full CCCAOE conference fees ($495) should you decide to stay for the full conference. Please check one or both during the registration process and choose “check” as the payment option. We will take care of the rest.
